

Springville Buckium.

VOLUME XV.—NUMBER 53.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1893.

Twice a Week at $2 a Year.

Th Day the United States of America have been politically independent for 117 years.

In every city and town throughout the great Republic distinguished orators will thrill audiences with flights of eloquence upon the theme suggested by the day, and the boom of cannon and the racket of the fire cracker will everywhere be heard. Americans cannot forget the memories of 1776.

Neither can the public forget that to Russell & Co. they owe the wrecking of high price ideas and the consequent cheapening of every man's Day Goods here in town.

One low price to all. Money cheerfully refunded for unsatisfactory purchases.

CASH ONLY.

Russell & Co.

Wholesale Prices at Retail

Our great advantage over other merchants in having a wholesale connection and a New York buyer constantly in the market enables us to offer Dry Goods at all times at the same or less prices than other merchants pay. That's why our stock sales don't wrong us—we are fatter on them—our great business is forcing right ahead—new goods coming in almost daily and our stock kept like a flowing stream, free from all stagnation.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Shooting at Pambrocks.

Saturday afternoon a row occurred at Pambrocks between Lucius Clark, white, and Claud Willis, col, in which the negro was shot twice in the leg by Clark. Neither wound a serious, however, and Willis will likely be able to be present at the examining trial this week. Clark is now in jail.

A Heavy Board Bill.

Todd Circuit Court convened in Elkhart last Monday. Among the larger suits filed in the Western Kentucky Law Court which are now on the first page of this issue, is that of J. H. Angier, the manager, is in the hands of the business capacity and to serve the very liberal patronage he is enjoying. This establishment is packed with goods and thousands of bargains are being offered daily. It is simply surprising to read the many great offers made to customers by this house and the manager guarantees that all goods go as advertised. Call and look through their varied stock of goods you have an opportunity. It will pay you.

Dr. Manning Brown, a graduate of the medical department of Vanderbilt University, has located in this city to practice his profession. His practice will be limited to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. Since his graduation last year, he has been a specialist in the treatment of these diseases. Dr. Brown has located in this city in the building, his office being in the Medical building. His card appears in today's paper.

Mr. B. H. Claggett is among the first as usual to market his wheat. He threshed June 28 and 30th and sold in advance to the Crescent Mills at 50 cents, five cents above the local market price. The extra five cents is the wheat that only a few early birds like Mr. Claggett are able to capture. The same gentleman sold the first crop last year at 67 cents, which shows how much wheat is off this season.

Mr. L. B. Brasher, cashier of the Kentucky Bank of Lexington, Mo., who is a Christian county boy and who has a pleasant living in this city, has been a night clerk for four months, but he fortunately secured only about $100, as they are alarmed before opening the bank safe in the vault.

Col. Sam F. Emley will deliver a free lecture at the Court House this evening at 8:30 o'clock to which the public is cordially invited. Col. Emley is a graduate of the Kentucky Institute at Clark Orchard, and his discussion of the Civil War will be of an interesting and instructive. Those who have heard his lecture praise it highly.

New Ice Cream Parlor.

Miss Ida Allen, "The milliner," has decided during the summer months to serve ice cream at her store on Ninth street. She has fitted up elegant parlors in her store, which will be in use in the fall and winter months. Everything has been arranged in a manner most tasteful and convenient. Nothing but the purest cream will be served. Her store will be thrown open to day and the public is invited to call on her. Also and enjoy a "Polar region" ice cream or sherbet with excellent fresh cake.

Miss Allen, the milliner, has the largest in the city and the public is well aware of the reputation she has for millinery. Call and see her for millinery.
